Hello to Andrew, Stewart and Jackie(where oh, where are you)!! It's cold and snowy here in Idaho, and I would be so happy to be somewhere warm and sunny. Stewart, I think you're the only one who's there. Bob and I haven't adjusted to this weather, yet. We had a fantastic time in Kauai, and it was hard to come home to this, but all good things come to an end. I think the idea of a blog is to just say a few sentences. I don't think that's possible for me, but I'll try. You too, Karen:kiss: :laugh:
